DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments, see amendment C, filed 12/30/03, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 17 and 21-26 under Chanasyk et al have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of Okuno et al (5,154,338) and Gibson (5,722,582).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 27 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Okuno et al (5,154,338). Okuno et al discloses a furnace which conveys printed circuit boards and includes a conveyor which supports (2) the circuit board in a working position, a heater (15) having a plurality of parallel heating tubes (SEE Figure 2) mounted for heating a side of the printed circuit board and a means (17) for directing gas past the heater toward the circuit board.

Claims 27 & 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Gibson (5,722,582). Gibson discloses a hot air circulation machine for printed circuit boards and includes a support (16) for supporting the circuit board in a working position, a heater (24) having a plurality of parallel hollow heating tubes (28 & 29) mounted for heating one side of the circuit board, a means for directing gas past the heater toward the circuit board is by way of holes (48) (SEE Figure 2) along the hollow tubes (28 & 29).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 17-26 allowed.

Claims 29-34 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
